

Proclamation

- Whereas, May 21, 2022 is the twelfth Kids to Parks Day, organized and launched by the National Park Trust, and held annually on the third Saturday of May; and
- Whereas, Kids to Parks Day encourages children and families to spend time outdoors visiting America's parks; and
- Whereas, it is important to introduce a new generation to our nation's parks and share our country's natural beauty and our conservation values with them; and
- Whereas, we should also encourage children to lead more active lifestyles to combat childhood obesity, diabetes, hypertension and high cholesterol; and
- Whereas, Kids to Parks Day is open to all children and adults across the country; and
- Whereas, Kids to Parks Day will increase children's appreciation for nature and the outdoors.

Now, therefore be it resolved, that I, Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft, Mayor of the City of Alameda, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 21, 2022 as in the City of Alameda, and encourage residents of Alameda to make time to take the children in their lives to a neighborhood, regional, state or national park.

Kids to Parks Day

Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft
Mayor
