4-60.40 - Minimum Wage.

- a. Employers shall pay employees no less than the minimum wage set forth in this section for each hour worked within the geographic boundaries of the City.
- b. Beginning July 1, 2019, the minimum wage shall be an hourly rate of thirteen dollars and fifty ($13.50) cents. On July 1, 2020, the Minimum Wage shall increase to an hourly rate of fifteen ($15.00) dollars. Beginning July 1, 2022, and on July 1 of every year thereafter, the minimum wage then in effect shall be adjusted by the increase in the cost of living but in no event shall the increase be greater than five (5%) percent. (For example, if the February 2021 to February 2022 increase in the cost of living were five (5%) percent, then the minimum wage as of July 1, 2022 would be fifteen dollars and seventy-five ($15.75) cents [$$15.00 \times 1.05 = \15.75].) A decrease in the cost of living shall not result in a decrease in the minimum wage.
- c. An employer shall not deduct an amount from the minimum wage due an employee on account of any tip or gratuity, or credit the amount or any part thereof of a tip or gratuity against, or as part of, the minimum wage the employee is due from the employer.
- d. No employer shall fund increases in compensation required by this article, nor otherwise respond to the requirements of this article, by reducing the minimum wage paid to any employee, nor by increasing charges to them for parking, meals, uniforms or other items, nor by reducing other non-wage benefits of any such employee, nor by increasing the share any employee pays towards his/her benefits.
- e. A violation for unlawfully failing to pay the minimum wage shall be deemed to continue from the date immediately following the date the minimum wage was due and payable as provided in Part I (commencing with Section 200) of Division 2 of the California Labor Code, to the date immediately preceding the date the minimum wage is paid in full.
- f. Notwithstanding subsection b of this Section 4-60.40, on or before June 1, 2020, to ensure that economic conditions can support a minimum wage increase, if the Governor of the State of California makes a determination to temporarily suspend the scheduled minimum wage increase that will increase the State wide minimum wage to fifteen ($15.00) dollars, the City will also temporarily suspend the scheduled minimum wage increase for July 1, 2020 for one (1) year.

- c. Employers shall retain payroll records pertaining to employees for a period of four (4) years, and shall allow the City access to such records, with reasonable notice and at a mutually agreeable time, to monitor compliance with the requirements of this article. Where an employer does not maintain or retain adequate records documenting wages paid or does not allow the City reasonable access to such records, the employee's account of how much he or she was paid shall be presumed to be accurate, absent clear and convincing evidence otherwise. Failure to maintain such records or to allow the City reasonable access shall render the employer subject to enforcement action under Articles 1.5 and 1.7 of Chapter 1 of this Code.
- d. If a violation of this article has been finally determined, the City shall require the employer to post public notice of the employer's failure to comply in a form determined by the City.
