

Proclamation

- Whereas, as Executive Director of the Downtown Alameda Business Association (DABA) for the last three years, Janet Magleby provided inspired leadership, promoted Downtown Alameda, built business relationships, and vigorously advocated on behalf of local businesses; and
- Whereas, Janet oversaw the addition of Park Street Landing to the downtown historic district, strengthening the connection between the waterfront and North of Lincoln Gateway district; and
- Whereas, Janet also guided the successful vote of commercial property owners to increase the Landscape & Lighting assessment, enhancing maintenance of the downtown district - a long sought, important goal; and
- Whereas, Janet originated and implemented the Clean, Green, and Safe Fund, which raises thousands of dollars from street events to improve the appearance of our downtown; and
- Whereas, Janet also introduced new and widely successful fundraising events, including the Whiskey Stroll and Hot Cocoa Crawl; and
- Whereas, Janet worked diligently with the Alameda Police Department, the Public Works Department, and the Community Development Department, to advocate for local merchants; and
- Whereas, Janet strengthened DABA's relationship with other local business organizations, non-profits, and community groups; and
- Whereas, Janet gained the trust and confidence of nearly every member of the association and the community through her passionate energy, hard work, dedication, and sincerity.

Now, therefore be it resolved, that I, Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft, Mayor of the City of Alameda, do hereby proclaim January 21, 2020 as in the City of Alameda and urge all residents to join me in thanking her for her distinguished service to Alameda's business community, and for making Alameda a better place to live, work, and play.

Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft
Mayor
