Z3roclamation

Whereas, Native American Heritage Month recognizes the significant contributions the first Americans made to the establishment and growth of the United States and pays tribute to the rich ancestry and traditions of Native Americans; and

Whereas, while we celebrate Indigenous peoples past and present, we do so knowing that America has not always delivered on its promise of equal dignity and respect for Native Americans; and hereas, for centuries, broken treaties, dispossession of ancestral lands, and policies of assimilation and termination sought to decimate Native populations and their ways of life; and

Hhereas, despite this painful history, Indigenous peoples, their governments, and their communities have persevered and flourished; and

Whereas, today, 349 people living in the City of Alameda identify as Native American and Alaska Native according to the 2020 Census; and

Hyereas, Native Americans are teachers, scholars, scientists, doctors, writers, artists, musicians, activists, business leaders, first responders, elected officials, and so much more, making immeasurable contributions to our community; and

Whereas, the City of Alameda is committed to the values of dignity, inclusivity, and respect for all individuals, regardless of ethnic or national origin, gender, race, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, or immigration status; and

Whereas, we will advocate for efforts that promote visibility of the rich and diverse Native cultures, address the tragedies of missing and murdered indigenous peoples, and are committed to teaching our youth the full history of this Nation.

Wow, therefore, be it resolbed, that I, Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft, Mayor of the City of Alameda, do hereby proclaim November 2022 to be
