Section 5. DESIGNATION OF ELIGIBLE LIST

The Human Resources Director may designate an existing Eligible List as an Eligible List for a related classification in which the minimum qualifications and the examination are similar to, or of a lower level than, those required for the original eligible list. An appointment from a designated list will not remove the applicant's name from the original eligible list.

  - (5) In all other instances, the number of ranks certified shall exceed by four the number of vacancies to be filled. The City shall use sequential ranking where the rank number is NOT advanced by the total number of tied candidates. For example, if there is a three way tie at rank 1, the next candidate would receive a rank of 2.
- (b) For names certified from an eligible list associated with a continuous recruitment, the department will contact each applicant certified and engage them in the department's initial step in the selection process.
- (c) The Executive Secretary to the Board shall have the authority and discretion to revise and maintain lists of classifications considered entry level and those requiring professional certification or advanced degree, however when any change is made to the list, those changes shall be reported to the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Before such names may be certified, the department must affirm that there are no employees in the class in the department available to fill the position who possess the requisite special skills, licenses, language proficiency, or specialized training. Such certification shall be in order of standing and shall follow the requirements in (a) of this section.

- (b) Following conditional appointment and prior to the start of employment the appointed candidate shall be subject to criminal background investigation based on the needs of the department and to the extent permitted by law and to a check of the candidate's police record through fingerprinting. Appointment may be cancelled after this investigation to the extent permitted by law.
- (c) For select positions within the Civil Service, following conditional appointment, candidates shall undergo a physical examination by a licensed physician to determine the state of their physical condition in connection with their job related duties to the extent permitted by law. For positions requiring a physical examination, failure to be able to perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodation shall be grounds to rescind the appointment.
- (d) For select positions within the Civil Service, following conditional appointment and where permitted or required by law, candidates shall undergo psychological evaluation by a clinical psychologist, at the expense of the city, to determine if the candidate is free from any emotional or mental condition that might adversely affect the exercise of the powers associated with their position and to otherwise ensure that the candidate is capable of withstanding the psychological demands of the position. For positions requiring psychological or psychiatric tests failure to successfully pass such testing shall be grounds to rescind the appointment.

- (f) If a candidate accepts an appointment and fails to present themselves for duty as instructed, they shall be deemed to have declined appointment unless, within two days, they give justification for their action acceptable to the Human Resources Director.

Section 3. PROBATIONARY APPOINTMENT

- (a) A probationary appointment occurs whenever a person is appointed from an eligible list. Every original and promotional appointment in the Civil Service shall be for a probationary term of at least six months. The length of the probationary period for a specific position is determined by the Memorandum of Understanding or Compensation Plan applicable to that position.
- (b) The purpose of the probationary period is to subject the employee to trial performance and training in the position to which they are appointed. During the time the employee is on probation, they may be released without appeal, unless the employee believes release is for an unlawful or discriminatory reason. Probationary employees are not entitled to seniority rights in lay-off, or to reinstatement priority.
- (c) Absences of over 30 continuous calendar days during the probationary period, shall extend the probationary period for the same number of calendar days. Continuous absence during the probationary period, even of less than 30 continuous days may be the basis for extension of the probationary period.
- (d) The probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the department head with the consent of the Human Resources Director for any job related reasons.

Section 4. COMPLETION OF PROBATION

The Human Resources Director shall notify the supervising official not less than two weeks prior to the conclusion of any probationary period. On or before the expiration of the probationary period, the supervising official shall file with the Human Resources Director a statement in writing containing an appraisal indicative of the probationary employee's service value to the City and indicating whether or not the probationary employee's retention in the service is desired.

If the probationary employee's retention is not desired, and at the time of their appointment the employee held another position within the Civil Service for which they had obtained permanent status, they shall be reinstated without loss of former rights to that position or a position within the same classification, provided, however, that a position is available.

A permanent appointment shall be effective when an employee has satisfactorily completed the probationary period in the position to which they are to be permanently appointed.

Section 6. PROVISIONAL APPOINTMENT

Such employment shall terminate upon the establishment of a new eligible list. Provisional appointments shall not last more than one year.

In no case shall any provisional appointment be credited to a probationary period. An individual provisionally appointed shall not be considered a Civil Service employee.

Section 7. LIMITED TERM APPOINTMENT

Whenever there is a need for employment for a limited time, exceeding one year but with a known end date, a limited-term appointment of a person meeting minimum qualifications for the position may be made from an Eligible List. An employee appointed on a limited term appointment has all the benefits and protections of these rules and the applicable Memorandum of Understanding or Compensation Plan. Time worked in the limited term appointment shall be credited towards the employee's probationary period.
