Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Do I need a permit for a temporary sign?
A: No. The City does not require a permit for temporary signs such as grand opening banners, promotional signs, and seasonal sale signs.

Q: How long can I have a temporary sign?
A: The allowed duration of the temporary sign depends on the type of sign. Most common temporary signs such as grand opening banners and promotional signs are allowed for a maximum of thirty (30) consecutive days.

Q: Where can I find specific regulations for all types of temporary signs?
A: Temporary signage regulations can be found in the Alameda Municipal Code (AMC) Chapter 30-6 Sign Regulations. The AMC can be viewed at: www.municode.com/library/ca/alameda
