

Alameda Recreation and Park Department
(510) 747-7529 / arpd@alamedaca.gov

ARPD KEEP PLAY ALIVE SCAVENGER HUNT

ARPD wants to encourage all Alamedans to GET OUT AND PLAY ON THE ISLAND

In honor of this request, ARPD has put together a Scavenger Hunt to get people out and about and playing in the parks. Be sure to tag ARPD as you complete the Hunt around Alameda: #alamedansatplay

FIND AND LOCATE THE FOLLOWING:

Oldest stamped concrete work within a park
Place where Ida and Hermann built for all
Place to find striped benches
A place where you can find a Crow's nest
Elector's kids & all kids can play here
A plaque in honor of the Commissioner
Newest place on old railroad yard
Silver medallion shines here
Benches made from redwood trees reside here
Steph played hoops here
A place where you can play music
My "dumb friends" hang out here
Largest current park in Alameda
Place built in 1909
Oak Shade Estate where gardens and athletes flourished

TAKE A PHOTO OF YOU
AND/OR YOUR FAMILY IN THE
VARIETY OF WAYS THAT YOU
ENJOY ALAMEDA PARKS

Share your photo by uploading it to:
AlamedaAtPlay@alamedaca.gov.

Please note that some photos will be selected to be used in future ARPD promotional activities and you agree with the ARPD photo consent.

Good Luck and keep playing in your Alameda parks!