

City of Alameda

COVID-19 Employee Exposure Notification Form

Dear (Employee Name): _____

The City of Alameda has been notified that one of our employees (or another individual at a particular worksite, such as a contracted employee) has been diagnosed with COVID-19. As an immediate response to protect the health and safety of our workforce, we conducted an investigation to determine co-workers who may have had close contact, as currently defined by public health authorities, with the confirmed-positive individual. As such, you have been identified as an employee who may have been exposed to this virus between the following dates: _____

The virus is spread primarily through respiratory droplets between people who are in close contact with one another. Individuals are contagious up to 48 hours before they exhibit symptoms or test positive for COVID-19. According to the California Department of Public Health (CDPH), a “close contact” is now defined as follows:

1. In indoor spaces 400,000 or fewer cubic feet per floor (such as home, clinic waiting room, airplane), a close contact is defined as sharing the same indoor airspace for a cumulative total of 15 minutes or more over a 24-hour period (for example, three separate 5-minute exposures) during an infected person’s infectious period.
2. In large indoor spaces greater than 400,000 cubic feet per floor (such as open-floor-plan offices, warehouses, large retail stores, manufacturing, or food processing facilities), a close contact is defined as being within 6 feet of the infected person for a cumulative total of 15 minutes or more over a 24-hour period during the infected person’s infectious period.
3. Spaces that are separated by floor-to-ceiling walls (e.g., offices, suites, rooms, waiting areas, bathrooms, or break or eating areas that are separated by floor-to-ceiling walls) are considered distinct indoor airspaces.
